

PaMu Slide TWS earbuds is a dual-wheat noise reduction headset equipped with Qualcomm Flag ship-class chip QCC3020. Not only have an excellent music quality, but it can also act as a wireless charger to charge your phone. For first-time users of PaMu Slide earbuds, how do you play music or answer the phone by gesturing and touching? Do not worry, here is a detailed PaMu Slide user manual for you.

How to Pairing the PaMu Slide Earbuds?

The PaMu Slide Earbuds support auto pairing like the common TWS earbuds such as AirPods and Xiaomi AirDots. The pairing method is extremely easy with any device what you wish to use it with.

Step 1: Turn on your mobile phone's or computer's Bluetooth

Step 2: Take the PaMu Slide Earbuds out of the battery box

Step 3: Search the "PaMu Slide" in your phone or computer 's Bluetooth list and choose to connect.

Then, you are ready to use the PaMu Slide earbuds.

How to gesturing the PaMu Slide earbuds?

The PaMu Slide Earbuds supports touch technology and is very sensitive and smooth to operate, and you can enjoy 60 hours of playtime or calling with it. So how do you operate music control and answer phone calls with PaMu Slide? Here is a brief user guide for you.

PaMu Slide Earbuds Gestures

L	R
Touch once	Touch once
Play/pause music	Play/pause music
Answer phone call	Answer phone call
Touch twice	Touch twice
Siri assistant	Next song
Call reject	Call reject
Long press	Long press
Volume down	Volume increase

Note:

- Just by holding your finger on the right earbud, the volume increases while holding your finger on the left earbud decreases the volume. Therefore, one doesn't have to touch their phone during a workout.
- PaMu Slide Earbuds supports single use as well as binaural use, but to for a better music experience, binaural use is recommended.